

2019-2020 Mentor Me Roundtables

We welcome all mentors to attend any and all meetings! At Roundtables, in addition to our topic of the month, we will take time to discuss other situations, challenges, or success stories you may bring to discuss. All events will be held at the Mentor Me Cavanaugh Recreation Center (426 8th Street Petaluma)

Tuesday, October 1st (6:30 – 7:30 pm) – You asked for it!

Come discuss an assortment of topics that mentors, new and old, often have questions about. We've collected some of our top mentor questions and are ready with tons of answers. Topics will include TB screening/testing, off-campus permission, driving privileges, and more.

Tuesday, November 5th (9:30 – 10:30 am) – Navigating Relationships

Let's talk about relationships: mentees and their peers, mentors and school staff, parents and mentors. How do we incorporate these relationships in our mentoring? What challenges do we have in each of these? Do you have any words of wisdom to share?

Monday, December 9th (12:00 – 1:00 pm) – Boundaries and Celebrations

With the holidays approaching, and mentor hearts full of cheer, it's a great time to talk about how you celebrate your mentorship. What are your boundaries for gift giving?

Thursday, January 30th (6:30 – 7:30 pm) – Empowering Girls presentation by Stacey Vogel

Stacey Vogel founded the Girls United Soccer Academy with a mission to make a positive impact on the girls in our community on and off the field. Her organization's hope is to unite young girls and give them the confidence to become powerful young women through the game of soccer. Come hear her speak about how we can empower the girls in our lives!

Tuesday, February 11th (9:30 – 10:30 am) – Keeping it Fresh!

Let's explore some new activities to do with your mentee. Whether you are staying on campus, or exploring the community, most mentorship reach a point where you've run out of ideas. Whether you are feeling stuck in a stale routine or have suggestions to share, we can learn from one another ways to keep the mentorship fresh!

Monday, March 9th (12:00 – 1:00 pm) – Mentoring with Compassion

How do mentors maintain their compassion for parents? How do you encourage compassion in your mentee? How do you maintain compassion with your mentee during challenging times? What sort of community service activities are available to mentorships? Compassion is a way of life that can be expressed in the smallest of details.

Tuesday, April 7th (6:30 – 7:30 pm) – Growing with your Mentee

As your mentee grows, what is age appropriate behavior? Whether or not you have children of your own, come learn about the common stages of child development. Let's talk about how to embrace these changes and grow with your mentee.

Thursday, May 7th (6:30 – 7:30 pm) and Friday, May 8th (9:30 – 10:30 am) – Promotion!

All mentors with students promoting to Junior High or High School please attend this very important event to learn about everything will need to know to make a smooth transition with your mentee.
